

PAUL WAINWRIGHT BAND's brand of smooth jazz is synonymous for funky, sax-driven groove oriented tunes that set your night scene alight.

Wainwright's choice of material is always fresh and his horn always hot. His instinctive ability as a superlative entertainer extends from sun baked jazz fans to European high society.

Paul 'party-down' status has earned him a well deserved reputation as Canada's ambassador of swing by fans and fellow musicians alike.

Paul Wainwright's versatility has garnered professional credits that include opening for Herbie Hancock, Wayne Shorter, Manhattan Transfer, Etta James, K.D. Lang and Melissa Etheridge as well as sharing the stage with great guitarists; Herb Ellis, Barney Kessel, and Charlie Byrd. Paul welcomes keyboard great; Morry Stearns, Steve Duben on Bass, Eric Emde on Drums and Tom Lang on Guitar for the 110% Paul Wainwright Quintet
